

Triplet Limb Independence #2

NOTATION KEY

Diagram illustrating the notation key for the drum set parts. It shows four staves with the following labels below them: Ride Cym. Bell, Snare Drum, Bass Drum, and Hi-hat (w/ foot).

Main notation for the drum set exercise. It consists of ten systems of four staves each, representing the four drum parts. The notation includes various rhythmic patterns, primarily featuring triplet rhythms (indicated by a '3' above the notes) and independence exercises. The exercise is written in 4/4 time. The notation includes rests, triplet eighth notes, and triplet sixteenth notes. Some measures are marked with a double bar line and a slash, indicating a repeat or continuation. The piece concludes with a final measure marked with a double bar line and repeat dots.
